Summertime at Whinfell Forest

Shady cycle paths winding their way through the leafy forest, splashing about on the sparkling Watersports Lake – the idyllic setting of Center Parcs really comes into its own each summer. After enjoying all that fresh air, you might just feel the need to put your feet up and relax. Perhaps a cooling spa treatment or two in the peaceful surroundings of Aqua Sana will do the trick. And, as the sun sinks slowly between the trees, why not set up your outside seating with a BBQ* pack and a few chilled drinks from the ParcMarket?
