

Dining In

Dining In is a take-away restaurant sited in the village square

There is level access through double opening automatic doors.

There is a small reception area of cushioned bench seating and an area with high stools.

Lighting in this unit is bright.

The restaurant is not provided with toilets. The nearest accessible toilets are located in the STSP changing area.

This unit has background music.

Braille and large print menus are available, please ask your server.