

Hucks

Hucks is a seated service restaurant with a bar area. This restaurant is sited within the Village Square. The last 12m of pathway leading to the entrance has an upward gradient. The entrance doors have level access to double manual opening doors.

Access to restaurant is through 2 sets of double doors with lots of room in-between sets to manoeuvre.

Lighting

Lighting in this restaurant is subdued during the evenings.

Toilets

Accessible toilets are available close to the entrance. Separate unisex baby changing facilities are available close to the entrance.

Outside area

To the rear of the restaurant is a lake side decked area, fully accessible from the restaurant from internal double doors, however if accessed from the lake path there is a single step to gain access

Menu

A large print or Braille menu is available on request.

Noise: This is a lively family restaurant with background music. There is an indoor play area that has a central tree house with stairs inside.

Special Events

Hucks hosts a New Year's Eve event. This event has live music playing throughout.

Carers/personal assistants are welcome to attend free of charge to assist guests with disabilities.

However, should the carer/personal assistant wish to eat or drink, there will be a charge for the meal/drinks only.