

Geo Caching

This activity is a competition between groups to find the plastic rocks around the site which have letters in side them.

The route covers the whole village. Some caches can be located slightly off the pathways or road ways.

Please refer to the Around the Village statement for further details regarding village topography.